High School Chatter

Hi, students! Do your ears hang low? Do they wobble to and fro? If so, eat crispy, crunchy lettuce every day! And today, instead of lettuce, you're eating turkey. Well, anyway, I hope you have a nice Thanksgiving.

Did you know that—Ray is trying to discover a shorter route to Farmville in order to have more time on his dates? That Helen Mae and Sam Ferguson were twosomes last Saturday night? That Henry Doss is looking for a ball and chain to keep up with his books? That Sam Almond and J. C. Lewis are the Romeo's of A. H. S? That Margie can ride a horse?

Students, you know what! Three flat tires, a broken rod and crowded conditions make a pretty good team! Jack Bill, he was the expert driver. He must have taken driving from Mrs. Brown.

You're in the Army now! Oh, Mr. Hudson, who will teach us geometry?

What would happen if—Mrs. Gilbert got mad one day; Marie Ferguson and Sam Davidson were tall; Barbara Ann had never met Ed; Fleetwood and Dan behaved somewhere; couldn't act; Ann Waller weighed 160 pounds Helen Mae, Barbara C. and Phyllis Perdieu were skinny.

Now, for our personality this week, edited by Howlette "Sonny" Martin, Jr., we present Barbara Carter!—I, Sonny Martin am honored to give Barbara Carter her deserved write-up in our local paper. Barbara is active in almost all of the activities at A. H. S. She holds many offices, which prove her capability and popularity in her class. She is a reporter of the S. C. A., holds an important position on the annual staff, reporter of her class, honorary member of the Latin Club, member of Spanish Club, reporter of Tri-Hi-Y, cheerleader and captain of the basketball team. Barbara hopes to become a physical education instructor. She assists in teaching a group of eighth graders. Some one has said that a person's education is not complete unless you have worked behind a fountain so, if you happen to be in the drug store when she ends you will see our smiling personality waiting to help you just as she has helped Appomattox High School Our class and I wish luck and happiness to the one born with the gift of laughter - Barbara Jeanette Carter.

APPOMATTOX QUIET FOR HOLIDAY

A quiet Thanksgiving Day is being observed in Appomattox. Business places were closed and many sportsmen were enjoying a day of hunting. Several hunters, including Fred Robertson and Bob Martin had bagged a deer earlier in the week. Few quail had been bagged.

Family gatherings were the order of the day. Central Baptist Church ladies were serving a Thanksgiving dinner at the school from 12 noon to 9 P. M.

A number of football fans were in Roanoke for the annual V. P. I.-V. M. I. game.

The Appomattox Garment Plant workers had the day off, but will work tomorrow and Saturday. The schools are closed until Monday.

HUNTING SEASON

Virginia's 1950 hunting season went into full swing on November 20, when the wraps came off statewide on deer, bear, turkey, quail, grouse, rabbits and squirrels in all counties that are open to hunting any given species of game.

According to I. T. Quinn, executive secretary of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, the average hunter's chances of returning home with something in the game bag are excellent this year.

Christmas shopping season to get into full sway next week.

Play safe—drive carefully.

A joint meeting of the Appomattox County Board of Supervisors and School Board was held yesterday at the court house, and opened bids for the construction of a new Negro High School here. Six bids were submitted, all reflecting the rapidly mounting cost of building. Low bid was submitted by the firm of C. W. Hancock & Son, Lynchburg.

After considerable discussion at an executive session, the Board of Supervisors authorized the School Board to accept the low bid, and the School Board awarded the contract to the Hancock firm. With the inclusion of architect's fees, the new Negro school will cost $358,-815. Possible elimination of some optional items may reduce the cost to approximately $350,000.

The project will be financed by use of "Battle Fund" grants from the state, a $200,000 loan at 2 per cent from the state literary fund, already approved and released by the state; and an additional loan of $50,000 from the literary fund, plus any grants available from the "Battle Plan" discretionary fund.

Work on the new school is expected to begin within ten days, and it will be ready by the next school session.

This project has long been on the waiting list of needed school construction in Appomattox County.

The county officials are hopeful that anticipated revenues will make it possible to carry this sizeable literary fund loan without an increase in the existing county tax rate. An additional source of county revenue is expected next year with the assessment of the natural gas pipeline and pump station. However, the county supervisors are inclined to the view that close figuring will be required to hold all expenses to a minimum to keep the budget in balance.

A H S Loses To Farmville

Appomattox High School lost its final game of the 1950 football season last night, going down 42 to 12 before the undefeated Farmville High School team at Farmville. Appomattox has a season record of 4 victories, four losses and 2 ties.

APPOMATTOX HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Kick Off

Barbara Ann Johnson, Reporter

Winter is here and I hope none of you have let these last few days of cold weather get you down. I expect there are more to follow.

The Appomattox Chapter of F. H. A. held its monthly meeting November 20. Plans were discussed for sending five girls to a Longwood Federation meeting Tuesday. The girls who attended the Federation meeting were: Jean Moore, Mary Ellen Moore, Bertha Wheeler, Virginia Lewis and Jackie Poston.

The first year Latin students ought to be full-fledged members of the Latin Club after that odd initiation last week. The boys were dressed as girls and vice-versa. It really looked as if we had some new pupils in our school.

The high school saw a movie on Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium. The title was "Melody For Three."

The football team suffered a tough defeat Saturday, losing to V. E. S. 13 to 12. The Appomattox scoring was done by Cawthorne and Doss. It was a well played game.

Don't forget that the first basketball game is at Concord December 1. This is Concord's home game but we want to have a big crowd from Appomattox, too. The girls and boys are practicing hard to get ready for the game.

We hear that our school pictures have returned. I know we are all anxious to see them.

Thanksgiving is here, and I hope we all remember to be thankful on this day for all the things provided for us and not be just thankful that it is a holiday and we are out of school.

We hear the 12th grade girls are giving a play next Wednesday in chapel. Mrs. Crawley is directing, and we are looking forward to seeing it.

This week I will end with this quotation: "Rare are those who prefer virtues to the pleasures of sense."

Meeting of Town Council

Monday was "delegation ight" at the regular meeting of the Appomattox town council. A number of delegations were present to discuss civic matters and were heard by the council. One group wished the installation of a street light at the rear of the high school building. Another urged that the location of the "town dump" be changed. A request for the removal of the fire siren to another spot was heard. And a delegation sought additional equipment for the volunteer fire company.

Most of these matters were referred to the council committees for study.
